Dear Westwood Christian Church,

The joy I have working at IDES allows me to see firsthand God's grace and the goodness of his people. Since my job requires me to be in the office, I don't know very many of you by sight. If I saw you on the street or at a convention, I would not recognize you. However, I do feel like I know you. God meets our needs through special donors like you.

I feel like I know the lady who after Hurricane Katrina sent us a large check designated for a kitchen. She had saved up for years to remodel her kitchen, but when she was ready to call the contractor, she just couldn't do it. She realized that she had a perfectly good kitchen but there were people in Louisiana and Mississippi who didn't even have one. I have never forgotten her sacrifice.

One day on my way to work, I noticed an elderly lady going out to her mailbox in her robe. She lived in a house that looked like it was falling down around her. A few years later, I realized she didn't live there anymore. I wondered what happened to her. Then IDES got a large donation from her estate. She had lived a very frugal life and then left most of her life's savings to us and her church. She lived simply so she could make a difference.

Ever since the war in Ukraine started, an anonymous person has sent in $100 in cash every week. I don't know this person, but we watch for that special envelope each week.

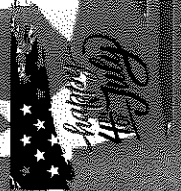

Then there is a special lady who calls in her donation each month. She never fails to ask how she can pray for us personally. If we have time, she will pray for us while she is still on the phone. We look forward to her call each month.

I probably don't know you personally, but I do know that God is using you to make a difference.

Thank you for your generosity,

Rita L. Camden
