Dear Westwood Christian Church,

In 1973, George Steinbrenner led a group that purchased the New York Mets for 10 million dollars. The Miami Dolphins won the Super Bowl and completed the season as the only undefeated NFL team. The Supreme Court overturns state bans on abortion. U.S. involvement in the Vietnam War ended with the signing of the Paris Peace Accords. The Godfather wins the Oscar for best picture. Federal Express officially begins operations. The Watergate hearings began and were fully televised on TV. Vice President Spiro Agnew resigned in October and the US Senate voted for Gerald Ford to replace him 1 month later. And in the midst of these historic events, Milton Bates would meet with several ministers at the North American Christian Convention in Indianapolis, IN where IDES was born.

Its mission for 50 years remains the same, "Sharing Help and Hope to those in need around the world." As a mission, IDES provides a way for our churches and individual donors to pool their financial resources together where the funds can be used effectively for disaster response, hunger relief, medical care, and community development, which is all centered around evangelism. So often, we see how disasters and needs of all kinds act as a catalyst in spurring people toward the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Your gift allows us to do just that. Without the gifts from donors and churches, IDES could not be as effective in our global outreach efforts. So on behalf of IDES, her Board, and staff, thank you for partnering with us.

Sharing Help and Hope,

Jeff Greene Director of Church Relations
